Affidavit of Financial Support for International Students 2008-2009

If you will need an F-1 or J-1 visa, Ohio State University is required by U.S. government regulations to check the availability of adequate funding for your tuition, fees, and living expenses for the duration of your studies. Until all funding documentation has been completed, signed, dated, and returned to the Graduate Admissions Office, we will be unable to provide you with a notice of admission or with the documents necessary to obtain your visa.

Documentation of funds

Complete both sides of this form and provide documentation as required. All documentation of sources of support which you submit must: 1) include both your name and the sponsor's (account holder's) name; 2) be dated no more than one year prior to the desired quarter; and 3) be written in English. Translations must be signed and sealed by the appropriate bank or government official.

Affidavit of Financial Support --A separate Affidavit is required from each sponsor. Each sponsor (personal and institutional) must complete the appropriate Affidavit of Support on the back or provide a letter of sponsorship. The total funds on the Affidavit(s) must equal the total funds needed for the duration of your studies at Ohio State. Letters of sponsorship must be for The Ohio State University.

Bank Statement--Each personal sponsor (friends, family, self) must provide a statement or letter from the bank showing U.S. dollars, or type of currency where the account is held, totaling the amount needed for the duration of your studies at Ohio State. The name of the account holder must be the same as the signature on the Affidavit of Support.

Estimated Expenses for a Single Student for One Quarter

All amounts below are current for 2008-2009 and are subject to change without notice. In 2008-2009 and beyond, plan for 5% to 10% annual increases for all costs.
