

The Ohio State University Graduate School Affidavit of Financial Support for International Applicants

If you will need an F-1 or J-1 visa, The Ohio State University is required by U.S. government regulations to check the availability of adequate funding for your tuition, fees, and living expenses for the duration of your studies (at least two years for a master's program and three years for a Ph.D.). To help you complete the Affidavit of Financial Support, please refer to the Estimated Expenses Graduate Budget for your intended program. Before admission to Ohio State can be finalized, you will be required to submit financial documentation (e.g. current bank statements in English) indicating that adequate funding is assured for the first year of study. In addition, you will need to indicate a pledge of support for the duration of your study at Ohio State (two years Master's; three years Ph.D.)

Directions for Completing Sponsorship Information

On the reverse side of this page, you are required to indicate who will be sponsoring you and the amount you expect to receive for each year that you are planning to be enrolled at Ohio State (two years for Master's or three years for Ph.D.). You are also required to submit bank statements documenting that you have available funding to cover the expenses for your first year of study. For bank statements to be acceptable, they must be original documents written in English, recently prepared, and showing the amount on account, expressed in U.S. dollars or the type of currency used. The immigration document (I-20 or DS-2019) will not be issued until the university is satisfied that you will receive adequate financial support to cover all of your educational expenses for the duration of your studies. Review the following instructions before completing the reverse side.

- Self Support: Complete the "self support" section if you have personal savings and intend to use this money for all or part of your financial support. Indicate the name of your bank where your funds are held and attach a bank statement to this form. The bank statement needs to indicate that you are the account holder.
- Parents or Personal Individual Sponsors: If your parents or others will be sponsoring all or part of your expenses, they should indicate on the next page the amount of funds they will provide, sign the Affidavit of Financial Support Certification and attach a bank statement. The name of the account holder on the bank statement must be the same as the signature on the Affidavit and needs to show at least the amount your sponsor(s) have indicated they will provide to cover first-year expenses.
- Government or Other Sponsoring Agency: If a government or another sponsoring agency (i.e. organization, institution, employer) is providing funding, indicate the name of the agency and include a letter from the agency detailing the terms of your award. The letter of award must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency and should provide the following information:
 - Will the sponsoring agency pay all tuition and fees? If not, how much will be provided? Should the agency be billed directly?
 - Will the agency provide you with living expenses? If so, how much?
 - How long is the sponsorship valid? One year, two years, or renewable until the degree is awarded?
 - Will the sponsor be willing to provide you with extra support should your spouse or children accompany you? If so, how much?
